(a) I request you to offer the above Lot for sale as my agent. I have given full disclosure of all material facts that a prudent purchaser would wish to know about it. I will be responsible for the accuracy of the catalogue description.

(b) I agree that the sale will be conducted in accordance with your Terms and Conditions as printed overleaf and in the catalogue which I have read and by which I (and, if relevant, my principal) agree to be bound.

(c) I will arrange delivery of the Lot to the auction venue at my expense. Unless agreed in writing this will include all documents relating to the history, work carried out, handbooks etc., and the vehicle will come with all spare or extra items, keys and other items relating to it.

(d) If the Lot is not sold, I will collect it at my own expense by 1pm on the day after the auction.

(e) I will maintain my insurance of the vehicle until I receive your payment of the Sale Proceeds.

(f) I shall have the right to withdraw the Lot after being accepted by you but before the auction.

(g) If the Lot is not as described by me on delivery to you, you may withdraw the vehicle from the auction and you will be entitled to your commission rates as mentioned in (f) above.

(h) I will pay the appropriate commission rates as set out overleaf.

3.2 Items requiring to be 'labelled' for individual quotations marked 'F' in the catalogue entry form. The hammer price is the price at which an item is knocked down at auction. The hammer price will be equal to the sum of the buyer's premium, the buyer's commission, if any, and any other charges and expenses of the sale. The hammer price will be increased by the buyer's premium and by the VAT on any of them.

6.2 The Seller authorises the Auctioneer to deduct from the Hammer Price (which VAT may or may not be refundable by HM Customs & Excise) the charges the Seller has agreed to pay, the buyer's commission, if any, the defaulters' premium, if any, and any other charges and expenses of the sale.

12.2 Any documentation pertaining to the Lot must be sent with the Entry Form. If any documentation is not included, the Seller must pay £60 to the Auctioneer's usual charges to compile a description of the Lot in Condition 12.5 above;

12.5 The Seller shall have the right (pursuant to the Torts (Interference with Goods) Act 1977) to recover the total amount due from the Buyer, but the Auctioneer shall have the right (pursuant to the Torts (Interference with Goods) Act 1977) to recover the total amount due from the Seller for any and/or for damages for breach of contract. If the Seller decide to sell the Lot elsewhere, the Auctioneer may proceed against the Buyer for the payment that the Auctioneer may choose to exercise. The Buyer will be held liable to the Seller for any and/or for damages for breach of contract.

18.8 To apply by way of objection to the hammer price, the Buyer should register his intention to bid for a Lot by sending in writing to the Auctioneer a registered letter. If the Buyer has been in writing to the Auctioneer and has been accepted by the Auctioneer, the Buyer may be permitted, in the discretion of the Auctioneer, to bid for a Lot, but the Buyer shall not be entitled to bid for any other Lot except as permitted by the Auctioneer.

22. The Seller shall be under no liability for any injury, damage or loss of any kind to any person who has not been invited to visit the Lot for sale. The Seller shall not be liable for any injury, damage or loss of any kind to any person who has not been invited to visit the Lot for sale. The Seller shall not be liable for any injury, damage or loss of any kind to any person who has not been invited to visit the Lot for sale. The Seller shall not be liable for any injury, damage or loss of any kind to any person who has not been invited to visit the Lot for sale. The Seller shall not be liable for any injury, damage or loss of any kind to any person who has not been invited to visit the Lot for sale. The Seller shall not be liable for any injury, damage or loss of any kind to any person who has not been invited to visit the Lot for sale.

23. The Seller is wholly responsible for the factual accuracy of, and for any advice he may give or any statement or representation he may make about the Lot. The Seller is responsible for, and he or she guarantees that for their part they shall not be liable for, and shall indemnify the Auctioneer, the Buyer, the Agent and any other person or corporation for or from any loss, costs, charges, expenses or claims in respect of any breach of these Conditions of the part of the Seller. The Seller is responsible for and he or she guarantees that for their part they shall not be liable for, and shall indemnify the Seller, the Agent and any other person or corporation for or from any loss, costs, charges, expenses or claims in respect of any breach of these Conditions of the part of the Seller. The Seller is responsible for and he or she guarantees that for their part they shall not be liable for, and shall indemnify the Seller, the Agent and any other person or corporation for or from any loss, costs, charges, expenses or claims in respect of any breach of these Conditions of the part of the Seller. The Seller is responsible for and he or she guarantees that for their part they shall not be liable for, and shall indemnify the Seller, the Agent and any other person or corporation for or from any loss, costs, charges, expenses or claims in respect of any breach of these Conditions of the part of the Seller. The Seller is responsible for and he or she guarantees that for their part they shall not be liable for, and shall indemnify the Seller, the Agent and any other person or corporation for or from any loss, costs, charges, expenses or claims in respect of any breach of these Conditions of the part of the Seller. The Seller is responsible for and he or she guarantees that for their part they shall not be liable for, and shall indemnify the Seller, the Agent and any other person or corporation for or from any loss, costs, charges, expenses or claims in respect of any breach of these Conditions of the part of the Seller.

25. In the event that the Seller withdraws the Lot from the Auction the Seller shall pay to the Auctioneer the usual charges for lifting the Lot from the premises of the Auctioneer and the usual charges for storage of the Lot for a period of 14 days after the date of withdrawal provided that the Seller may not collect the Lot from the Auctioneer's premises until such time as the charges due to the Auctioneer have been paid in full and any other reasonable costs and expenses plus VAT payable thereon.

31. The Buyer shall be required to pay the amount due to the Auctioneer in accordance with the Buyer's Commission calculation on the hammer price of the Lot sold to the Buyer. The Buyer's Commission shall be paid in addition to the hammer price and all other charges and expenses related to the Lot. The Buyer's Commission shall be calculated as follows:

31.2 If before the Total Amount Due is paid by the Buyer (whether or not the Buyer has obtained a guarantee or warranty attaching thereto as to condition, roadworthiness or other characteristics of the Lot), the Buyer should have notified the Auctioneer in writing of the Auctioneer as to such rate shall be conclusive.

31.6 The Seller shall maintain their insurance of the Lot until they are in receipt of cleared funds in respect of the hammer price, commission and all other reasonable expenses due from the Sale proceeds to the Seller 14 days after the date of the Sale, whichever is the longer.
